CONDITIONS OF SALE

These Conditions of Sale, the Terms of Warranty, the Important Information and any Glossary of Terms contained in the catalogue, as may be amended by posted notice or verbal announcement at the sale, constitute the complete terms and conditions under which the listed property will be offered for sale.

1. EVERY LOT IS SOLD AS IS WITH ALL FAULTS AND ERRORS OF DESCRIPTION. THE AUCTIONEER DISCLAIMS ALL RESPONSIBILITY FOR AGE, AUTHENTICITY, PROVENANCE, ORIGIN, PHYSICAL CONDITION, IMPORTANCE, SIZE, QUALITY, RARITY, EXHIBITION OR HISTORICAL REFERENCE EXCEPT AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE LIMITED WARRANTY OF AUTHENTICITY OF AUTHORSHIP CONTAINED IN THE "TERMS OF WARRANTY". All statements made by Phillips, its agent and employees, whether oral or written, including statements contained in the catalogue, are statements of opinion only and not warranties or representations of fact. Purchasers are deemed to have satisfied themselves as to all of the matters set forth above and no employee or agent of Phillips has authority to make any warranty or representation of fact as to any such matters. The Consignor warrants good title to the Purchaser. Phillips acts only as agent for the Consignor and makes no independent warranty of title. Phillips and the Consignor make no representations or warranty that the Purchaser acquires any reproduction rights or copyright in property purchased at the sale.

2. Phillips is authorized to rescind the sale of any property in accordance with the Terms of Warranty. If, after receiving notice of Purchaser's intention to rescind, Phillips determines that the property is subject to rescission, Phillips shall credit the Purchaser with the full purchase price including Purchaser's premium. Such refund shall constitute Purchaser's sole remedy with respect to any claim arising out of the sale of property by Phillips. PHILLIPS HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR OTHERWISE, ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE SALE OF ANY PROPERTY BY PHILLIPS TO PURCHASER. All rights granted to the Purchaser under this Section 2 are personal to the Purchaser and may not be assigned or transferred. Any attempt so to assign or transfer any such rights shall be void and unenforceable.

3. Phillips' auctioneer has absolute discretion to divide any lot, to combine any two or more lots, to withdraw any lots, to refuse bids and to regulate the bidding. By the making of a bid, the Purchaser acknowledges his acceptance of these Conditions of Sale and all terms and conditions announced at the sale. Phillips specifically reserves the right to withdraw lots at any time prior to or during the sale.

4. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer will be the purchaser of the lot. Any advance made on an opening bid may be rejected if the auctioneer deems it inadequate. In the event of any dispute between bidders, or in the event of doubt as to the validity of any bid, the auctioneer will have the final decision either to determine the successful bidder or to re-offer and re-sell the lot in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, the auctioneer's sale record shall be conclusive.

5. On the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, title to the offered lot shall pass to the highest bidder who may be required to sign a confirmation of purchases and pay the full purchase price. The Purchaser shall assume full risk and responsibility for the lot purchased on the fall of the auctioneer's hammer. Phillips, at its option, may withhold the lots until funds represented by check have been collected or the authenticity of bank or cashier checks has been determined. No purchase shall be claimed or removed until the conclusion of the sale. In the event Phillips shall, for any reason, be unable to deliver lots purchased, its liability therefore shall be limited to the rescission of the sale and refund of the purchase price and Purchaser's premium. PHILLIPS HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR OTHERWISE, ARISING OUT OF ITS FAILURE TO DELIVER ANY LOTS PURCHASED.

6. All lots shall be paid for and removed at the Purchaser's risk and expense by noon of the third business day following the sale. Lots not so removed will, at the sole option of Phillips and at Purchaser's risk and expense, be stored at Phillips' own warehouse or be turned over to a licensed warehouse for storage. Purchaser agrees, in either case, to pay all shipping, handling and storage fees incurred pursuant to the preceding sentence. In the case of lots stored at Phillips' own warehouse, the handling and storage fee shall be an amount equal to one percent (1%) of the purchase price for each such lot, per month, until removed, with a minimum charge of five percent (5%) for any property not removed within thirty (30) days from the date of sale. In addition, Phillips reserves the right to impose a late charge, calculated at a rate of one and one quarter percent (1¼%) per month, based on the purchase price, if payment has not been made in accordance with these Conditions of Sale. Those lots not collected within thirty (30) days of the date of sale may, at the sole option of Phillips, be recalled for sale under the terms of Section 10 below.

7. Packing and/or handling of purchased lots by employees of Phillips is undertaken solely as a courtesy for the convenience of clients. In the case of fragile articles, other than prints and drawings in glazed frames (the packing and handling of which Phillips will not undertake), packing and handling will be undertaken at the sole discretion of Phillips. If Phillips determines, at its sole option, not to undertake the packing and handling of purchased lots, Phillips may as Purchaser's agent instruct an outside contractor to act on Purchaser's behalf. In addition, if requested by Purchaser, Phillips may, at its sole option and as Purchaser's agent, arrange for the transportation of purchased lots by an outside contractor. Charges for packing, handling, insurance and freight are payable by the Purchaser. Phillips will make every reasonable effort to handle purchases with care, but assumes no responsibility for damage to lampshades, bulbs, lighting fixtures, frames or glass of paintings and prints or other, similar items. PHILLIPS HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL LIABILITY FOR LOSS OR DAMAGES (INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR OTHERWISE) ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE PACKING, HANDLING OR TRANSPORTATION OF PURCHASED LOTS.

8. The purchase price payable by the Purchaser shall be the total of the final bid price plus a premium of ten percent (10%) of such final bid price, together with any applicable taxes, including, without limitation, New York State and New York City sales taxes. The premium referred to in the preceding sentence is in addition to any commissions or other charges payable by the Consignor.

9. PHILLIPS ACTS AS AN AGENT ONLY AND DISCLAIMS RESPONSIBILITY FOR DEFAULT BY EITHER PURCHASER OR SELLER. Phillips accepts no responsibility in connection with the commissioning of members of its staff to bid for lots on behalf of prospective purchasers. Instructions given by telephone are accepted at the sole option of Phillips and at the sender's risk and must be confirmed immediately by telegram or cable. If such confirmation is not received by Phillips at its designated office within twenty-four (24) hours after the sale, Phillips may award the sale to the second highest bidder.

10. If the Purchaser fails to comply with one or more of these Conditions of Sale then, in addition to all other remedies which it may have at law or in equity, Phillips may, at its sole option, either (a) cancel the sale, retaining as liquidated damages all payments made by the Purchaser, it being recognized that actual damages may be speculative or difficult to compute, or (b) sell the Property and all other property of the Purchaser held by Phillips without notice. Such sale will be at our standard commission rates, without reserve. The proceeds of such sale(s) shall be applied first to the satisfaction of any damages occasioned by Purchaser's breach, and then to the payment of any other indebtedness owing to Phillips, including without limitation, commissions, handling charges, the expenses of both sales, reasonable legal fees and collection agency fees and any other costs or expenses incurred hereunder. Any excess of proceeds will be remitted to the Purchaser. PURCHASER HEREBY WAIVES ALL THE RE-

QUIREMENTS OF NOTICE, ADVERTISEMENT AND DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS REQUIRED BY LAW, INCLUDING THOSE SET FORTH IN NEW YORK LIEN LAW, ARTICLE 9, SECTIONS 200-204 INCLUSIVE, OR ANY SUCCESSOR STATUTE, WITH RESPECT TO ANY SALE PURSUANT TO THIS SECTION 10.

11. The Purchaser will be liable to pay all applicable sales and use taxes in connection with the sale. Purchasers claiming exemption from such taxes must submit resale or exemption certificates or other proof of exemption.

12. All lots marked "●" are subject to a reserve which is the confidential minimum below which the lot will not be sold. Phillips may implement the reserve by bidding on behalf of the Consignor.

13. In certain instances, Phillips may have an interest in the lot other than its commission. In such a case, Phillips may bid on the lot to protect its interest.

14. Consignor shall not bid on his property. Should Consignor become the Purchaser of any lot he has consigned, he will pay Phillips the full commission on the sales price, as set forth in the Consignment Agreement, plus the ten (10%) percent buyer's premium, together with all other sums that may be due Phillips under the Consignment Agreement or these Conditions of Sale, prior to the release of the property.

15. Unless Purchaser notifies us to the contrary, Purchaser agrees that Phillips, at its discretion, may use Purchaser's name as buyer of the property.

16. If the Purchaser claims that any of these Conditions of Sale have been violated, such claim must be delivered to Phillips via U.S. Certified Mail, Return Receipt Requested, within twenty (20) days of the date of sale or the claim shall be deemed waived.

TERMS OF WARRANTY

1. LIMITED WARRANTY OF AUTHENTICITY OF AUTHORSHIP: Subject to the provisions of Section 5 below, Phillips, as agent, warrants, for a period of five (5) years from the date of sale, the authenticity of authorship of all lots contained in this catalogue as and to the extent set forth below. 2. Limitations on Warranty of Authenticity of Authorship: Phillips only warrants statements of authorship that are printed in the catalogue in bold face type, and then, only as and to the extent set forth below:

(a) Bold faced statements in the catalogue of sale which unequivocally identify a lot as the work of the named artist or author shall mean that the work is by the named artist or author (i.e., if the name of the artist is printed in bold face type without a question mark (?) and without any qualifying phrase such as "attributed to" or "circle of");

(b) Bold faced statements in the catalogue of sale which attribute the work to a named artist or author shall mean that the work is of a period or school of the artist or author, but is not, with certainty, by the named artist or author. This may also be indicated by a question mark (?) following the name of the artist or author. The following statements of attribution have the meanings specified:

- (i) "ATTRIBUTED TO . . ." — means the work is of the period of the named artist, and may be, in whole or in part, the work of the artist, but less certainty as to authorship is expressed than in (a) above.

- (viii) "BEARS SIGNATURE . . ." — has a signature which in our qualified opinion, might be the signature of the artist.
- (ix) "DATED . . ." — is so dated and in our qualified opinion, was executed at about that date.

(x) "BEARS DATE . . ." — is so dated and in our qualified opinion, may have been executed at about that date.

3. NOTWITHSTANDING ANY OTHER PROVISION OF THESE "TERMS OF WARRANTY", PHILLIPS DISCLAIMS (i) ALL WARRANTIES OF AUTHENTICITY OF AUTHORSHIP FOR ALL LOTS CONSISTING OF WORKS OF FINE ART BY OR ATTRIBUTED TO ARTISTS, AUTHORS OR PERSONS LIVING BEFORE 1870 AND, WHEN NO ARTIST, AUTHOR OR PERSON IS SO IDENTIFIED, WORKS ATTRIBUTED TO A PERIOD WHICH INCLUDES ANY DATE PRIOR TO 1870 AND (ii) ALL WARRANTIES RELATING TO THE IDENTIFICATION OF THE PERIODS OR DATES OF EXECUTION OF PROPERTY WHICH MAY BE PROVEN INACCURATE BY MEANS OF SCIENTIFIC PROCESS NOT GENERALLY ACCEPTED FOR USE UNTIL AFTER PUBLICATION OF THE CATALOGUE.

4. WHILE PHILLIPS MAKES REASONABLE EFFORTS TO INSURE THE ACCURACY OF CATALOGUE DESCRIPTIONS, IT DISCLAIMS ANY WARRANTY OF AUTHENTICITY OF AUTHORSHIP THAT MIGHT OTHERWISE APPLY TO ANY SUCH DESCRIPTION OR STATEMENT OF ATTRIBUTION THAT IS NOT SET FORTH IN BOLD FACE TYPE.

5. All warranties of authenticity of authorship are limited to a period of five (5) years from the date of sale. In addition, no warranty of authenticity of authorship shall be binding upon Phillips unless the Purchaser returns the disputed lot to Phillips in the same condition as sold by Phillips, not later than five (5) years after the date the lot was auctioned.

6. If Phillips determines that the authorship of any property is substantially and materially different from that represented in the catalogue of sale, the sale shall be cancelled and Phillips shall refund to the Purchaser the original purchase price and premium paid by the Purchaser. Upon such payment, Phillips and the Purchaser shall be deemed released of any and all claims that each may otherwise have had against the other arising out of or in connection with the sale of such property.

7. The benefits of any warranty granted hereunder are personal to the Purchaser and are not assignable or transferable to any other person, whether by operation of law or otherwise. Any attempted assignment or transfer of any such warranty shall be void and unenforceable. For purposes of this Section 7, "Purchaser" shall mean the original purchaser of the lot from Phillips and not any subsequent owner or other person who may have or acquire an interest therein.

8. Purchaser's sole remedy in the event of disputed authenticity of authorship of any lot shall be rescission of the sale and restitution of the original purchase price and premium paid by such Purchaser. PHILLIPS HEREBY DISCLAIMS ALL LIABILITY FOR ANY DAMAGES, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR OTHERWISE, ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SALE TO PURCHASER.

ALICE A. DeLAMAR

Miss Alice A. DeLamar was born April 21, 1895, to Capt. Joseph DeLamar and the former Nellie Sands. Her father came to the United States at an early age from Holland and eventually amassed a considerable fortune as a mining engineer, from the silver and copper rushes in the West.

When World War I broke out Miss DeLamar volunteered for service in the Red Cross Motor Corps, which provided ambulances to carry wounded soldiers away from the European battlefields.

Fresh from witnessing the tragedies of war, her father died in late 1918. As an only child, Miss DeLamar received half of the captain's fortune outright making her one of America's wealthiest heiresses. The remainder of Capt. DeLamar's fortune went to medical schools at Harvard, Johns Hopkins and Columbia Universities.

Miss DeLamar used part of her fortune to build and design the homes she would reside in until her late days.

She also backed the publication of her personal friend Addison Mizner's book, The Florida Architecture of Addison Mizner.

Miss DeLamar, who died last August at the age of 88, had a remarkable talent for creating in her homes around the world an ambiance of genteel, gracious living. A born collector, she amassed a prized collection of antique furniture: English and Spanish oak, superb American pine and tiger maple, hooked rugs, glassware, objects d'art, masses of books and memorabilia of world travels. Hers was a private domain, rich in spirit, yet totally devoid of anything ostentatious.

The contents of this sale comprise the furnishings of Miss DeLamar's sprawling estate in Weston, Connecticut as well as her Park Avenue apartment. In many ways it's a landmark sale. Not only does it mark the passing of an American legend, which Alice A. DeLamar certainly was, but it brings onto the market many outstanding pieces of furniture and one-of-a-kind collectibles that are being offered for sale for the first time in recent years.

Miss DeLamar, who divided her time between her homes in Connecticut and Palm Beach, Florida, was an intensely private and reserved woman. She often detested promising artists, and served as their patroness. Yet her aversion to any publicity or flamboyance led her to conceal such support.

- 509-529 NOTE: Alice A. DeLamar was one of Pavel Tchelitchev's first supporters in the United States. Fleeing Paris days before the German occupation of the city in 1939, the artist sought refuge in America. Miss DeLamar and the artist's dealer in the States, Julien Levy, served as his sponsors at Customs. Emotionally exhausted and financially destitute from his ordeal, Tchelitchev was given haven at the DeLamar estate in Weston, Connecticut. He was provided with a guest house, maid and a cook. Years later he honored Miss DeLamar's kindness by painting her portrait into his famous Hide and Seek, now in the Museum of Modern Art. The following lots attest to their long friendship, which lasted until the artist's death in 1957. Many of these were either completed during the artist's stay at the DeLamar estate or are studies for Hide and Seek. (For a published account of their friendship, see: Julien Levy, Memoir of an Art Gallery, G.P. Putnam & Son, New York, 1977, pp. 234 and 246).
